

Special notification for those who are reporting to Korean work places in Korea

In response to prevent the COVID – 19 global pandemic, as of 1st of April, 2020, the Republic of Korea requires all inbound travelers to be subject to self-quarantine or facility quarantine.

Therefore, with effect from 11th May 2020, the Republic of Korea requires all workers with E-9 visas to be subject to self-quarantine and submit the attached confirmation document to the government of the Republic of Korea following certification of the document by the Director of EPS Center of HRD Korea in Sri Lanka. Accordingly, those who have come to Sri Lanka for a short period of vacation with or without a Release Letter, and who wish to return to South Korea under Re-entry, contact your employer before entering Korea and confirm the possibility of workplace quarantine. If not, contact the Sri Lankan Embassy in Korea to have a place to quarantine. Else obtain the information about the quarantine facilities you are supposed to receive in person.

All foreign workers must possess the original Confirmation of Self-quarantine documents with them when travelling to Korea and failure to do so will lead to deportation in some cases.

Procedure:

Step 1 : The Worker fills the confirmation document appropriately with all requested information and send a clear scan copy to EPS Center via email; epscenterlk@yahoo.com. [Please note that the form should be duly filled with required information, Ex : Address in Korea, Cell phone Number in Korea.....etc].

 You must have a separate place where you can spend the quarantine period (14 days) and not use the group in any way. The place should be equipped with separate washroom/toilet and it cannot be shared with other party.

Step 2 :

The information will be exchanged with the head office of HRD Korea in order for the verification of the quarantine facility given by the worker.

Step 3 :

Once the information is verified by the head office of HRD Korea, EPS Center in Sri Lanka will contact you.

Step 4:

Worker will visit the EPS Center in Sri Lanka (upon given time by EPS Center) to collect the original certified document by the Director of EPS Center.

The worker must bring the filled original document when visiting the EPS Center.

Note:

Workers with the appointment time can only enter in to the EPS Center premises.
